Hi,

I came across a really nice website of a school in Edenvale:

<http://www.songshanedenvale.com>. Got a good feeling with them and liked their approach to Kung-Fu. Thought this might help if anyone was interested?

Regards

Graeme

I went to <http://www.songshanedenvale.com> fro about 4.5 years, they are brilliant. I unfortunately could not continue there. But i would defiantly recommend them if you are in the Edenvale area.

I am currently looking for purely Wing Chun or even Jeet Kune Do in the Edenvale area if anyone can help?

Hi, I'm very interested in learning Wing Chun or alternatively Jeet Kun Do. Unfortunately there are no schools in Durban I know of. I know there are schools in Capetown and JHB. Just wish we could get a Sifu down here to help us out. I know of a few people that would like to join.

For those of you looking for Jeet Kune Do instruction, I've found a 2nd-generation instructor (Pano Damoulakis, who trained under Sammy Chen who trained directly with Bruce Lee) who is teaching in Pretoria. I'm building him a web site so you can see more info at <http://www.jeetkunedo.co.za> or just phone Pano on: 083 484 3973 / 076 580 8958. Hope this helps! 😊

For any traditional and authentic kung fu or tai chi in Durban, Cape town or Gauteng, please go to <http://www.kung-fu.co.za> the style is traditional and all our masters and lineage holders can be traced which is a lot more than I can say for most "kung fu" styles I've come across the last few years 😊

32. Mar 14, 2012

POSTED BY SS

I have attended <http://www.kung-fu.co.za> and have to say that they are as authentic as it gets. For Kung Fu, Tai Chi or Qi Gung, this is THE school to attend.

33. Mar 14, 2012

For those in the Durban area who are wanting to learn Wing Chun Kung Fu, there is a new teacher who studied Wing Chun in Hong Kong. He represents Grand Master Wan Kam Leung's lineage of Wing Chun which is from the late Master Wong Shun Leung. Great self defence and fitness training! He is also going to open branches in Cape Town and Johannesburg once the Durban branch is strong enough. So those who are interested get him to your city, JHB first 😊

If you would like to contact him for classes or for more info here are the contact details:
email: practicalkungfusa@gmail.com and the website is: <http://www.practicalwingchun.co.za>.
I've trained in a few martial arts and I've got to say I was impressed. I would be there now if I didn't stay in JHB (busy trip to Durbs). Look forward to him coming to JHB in the future!!
